MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST BYLAWS

Article I

PURPOSE AND DEFINITIONS

1. The purpose of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as stated in its charter (1799) is "diffusing the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ ... and in concert with other ecclesiastical bodies for the general increase of Christian union and spiritual efficiency and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth."
2. The local church is the basic unit of the life and organization of the United Church of Christ. It is autonomous and has the power of self-determination in all matters.
3. An Association is composed of all local churches in a geographical section of the Conference, of all ordained ministers holding standing therein, of all commissioned ministers of that Association, and of those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in that Association.

An Association may include Congregational Christian churches which are not part of the United Church of Christ, yet are in voluntary fellowship with and are recognized by the Association.

4. The name of this corporation is the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, herein referred to as the "Conference." The Conference is that body of the United Church of Christ which is composed of all local churches in a geographical area, all ordained ministers holding standing in its Associations, all commissioned ministers in its Associations, and those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in its Associations.

It joins with other Conferences and agencies of the United Church of Christ for the advancement of God's work in this world.

5. An Area is established by the Board of Directors and is composed of an Association or Associations informally grouped together for the convenience of the Conference.

Article II

DENOMINATIONAL BASIS

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

Article III

DOCTRINAL BASIS

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our forebears confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

The Moderator called upon Dr. Taylor to give her report as Minister and President of the Conference. She highlighted some of the things that are good and right about the United Church of Christ in Massachusetts, while reminding those present that there is much yet to do. With reference to the events of September 11, 2001, she noted that while the world has become a smaller and scarier place, we have learned a measure of compassion and empathy for many in this world who live with violence and terror as a part of their everyday lives. She pointed out that the events of September 11 also demonstrated the value of 21st Century technology in that, through the use of email, many were instantly in touch with others, supporting, praying, and sharing. On that date, of the 430 churches of the Massachusetts Conference, 164 were not connected by email. Today, that number has been reduced to 58 churches. The events of September 11 have also heightened and intensified the case for inter-religious relationships, discussion and learning.

In light of the Roman Catholic Church sexual scandal, she reminded listeners that about one third of the people in the pews of the Massachusetts Conference congregations come from Roman Catholic backgrounds. We must be more intentional about teaching the faith and order of the United Church of Christ. Dr. Taylor lifted up the need for additional support for the United Church of Christ, the seminaries and the mission and vocation of this denomination. She also spoke of the new laws pertaining to mandatory reporting, in which the United Church of Christ was a major player, and the absolute need for every church to become a safe church by learning about, putting in place, and implementing safe church practices. She spoke about the continuing transition in the Conference, and thanked the search committees and the Interim Associate Conference Ministers who have stepped in as needed. In closing, she spoke of the promising future and ended with words of appreciation for all the support and encouragement she has received since her arrival last September.

The Moderator called upon Mr. Wayne Frigard and Mr. John Pearson to report for the Board of Directors on the proposed sale of a small portion of the Conference property located in Ashland, MA. There was some debate over the proposal and there was one amendment voted which removed the maximum amount permissible for renovations to Edwards House at the Framingham Conference Center. Several other possible amendments were referred to the Board of Directors for study. It was moved, seconded, and voted that

WHEREAS the Psalmist proclaims, "How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity" (Psalm 133:1) and Jesus in the Beatitudes taught his disciples, "Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called children of God" (Matthew 5:9); and the Apostle Paul has told us that we are entrusted with the "ministry of reconciliation" (2 Corinthians 5:18) and called to be "ambassadors for Christ" (2 Corinthians 5:20); and

WHEREAS Mission and Justice Ministries and the Latin American/Caribbean Office of the Common Global Ministries worked in collaboration with Witness for Peace to send a diverse, interfaith delegation to Colombia from March 11-13, 2001 which included 20 clergy and lay representatives of the United Church of Christ and the Disciples of Christ from around the country; and

Minutes

Appendix B

2003 Compensation Guidelines for MACUCC Clergy for use with Clergy Compensation Booklet available from the Commission on Leadership Development, MACUCC

The 203rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, concerned with the growth of its churches and the compensation of its ordained leaders, recommends that all congregations meet the goals as outlined in Guidelines for Clergy Compensation. The guidelines apply to all full-time pastors, associates and assistants, both settled and interim.

Because the pastor of a church is required by the Associations of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ to be a highly educated and trained professional, the salary and housing package for pastors should be congruent with the compensation of other similarly trained professionals in the community. The total compensation package could be considered at least equal to that of professionals requiring three or more years of post graduate training such as school superintendents, secondary and middle school principals, engineers and other professionals in administrative positions, showing consideration for years of service, special skills and training, and natural aptitude. The federal tax structure is unique for clergy, and the compensation package should be designed in such a way as to maximize the pastor's income.

The work schedules and compensation packages of local pastors should be healthy for the pastor and for the church. That would require a balance of time spent in the church's ministry and time spent with family and friends -- a balance of work and recreation, a balance of exercising the body and the mind, a balance of care of others and care for self.

Some churches, because of their smaller membership and/or financial constraints, may be unable to provide an adequate compensation package for full-time pastoral service. They are encouraged to meet with the Area Minister and/or Stewardship and Financial Planning Consultants from the Conference to review their situation. They may consider creative options, such as calling a part-time, bi-vocational pastor or sharing a pastor with another congregation in the area in order to combine resources to offer adequate compensation. A congregation should not expect a pastor to work full-time for part-time compensation.

Be it resolved that the 203rd Annual Meeting recommends:

1. Churches pay the minimum entry-level cash salary according to the following table for a full-time pastor;
2. Churches provide either:
 - a. a PARSONAGE with a furnishings allowance, all utilities, and an equity development plan which will ensure the pastor has housing assets in retirement; or
 - b. a CASH PACKAGE sufficient to allow the minister to buy, furnish and maintain a median-priced house in the church's community; the minimum cash package shall be no less than 1/100 per month of the value of a median-priced home in the community; (for example: if a median-priced house in a community is $150,000, the church's minimum cash package for housing would be $1,500 per month, or $18,000 per annum)
3. Full benefits and professional expenses be provided, as listed below; benefits and professional expenses are not to be considered part of the cash salary, but are part of the cost of having an ordained minister;
4. Churches already at or above the minimum and also fully providing all benefits and professional expenses as outlined below give at least a cost of living increase and consider a merit increase also;

Minutes

5. The work schedule of local pastors be a maximum average of 40-50 hours per week with no more than 3 evenings in a given week; in addition, pastors take at least 1½ days off per week.

CASH SALARY RANGES

The cash salary ranges do NOT include housing, benefits, professional or any other expenses. In calculating years of ordained experience, churches may wish to include other relevant life and work experience.

BENEFITS AND PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES

A. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE

Since clergy are treated as self-employed for social security purposes, pastors must pay the current 15.3% on the cash salary plus housing allowance or on cash salary plus the fair market rental value of the parsonage plus utilities. Therefore it is recommended that churches pay 7.65% of the pastor's salary plus housing allowance or, where a parsonage is provided, 7.65% of fair market rental value plus cost of utilities for social security. This is taxable income which must be reported on a clergy person's tax returns.

B. BENEFITS

1. annuity - minimum of 14% of base salary plus housing allowance (or minimum of 14% of 130% of base salary if parsonage is provided) paid quarterly to the UCC Pension Board¹
2. life insurance and disability benefit plan - disability income insurance and decreasing term life insurance through UCC program; cost is 1% of base salary plus housing allowance or, where a parsonage is provided, of 130% of base salary
3. group life insurance - additional decreasing term life insurance available through the Pension Boards for $50 per year
4. medical/dental insurance - available through the UCC Pension Boards
5. holiday and vacation time - usual holidays (or compensation time) and 4 weeks vacation per year
6. continuing education time
7. sabbatical time and funds
8. sick time
9. maternity/paternity leave, including for adoption

For more detail see Clergy Compensation Booklet

C. PROFESSIONAL COSTS

Tax law allows deduction of business expenses on Schedule A only after the minister has spent more than 2% of family adjusted gross income on such expenses. THEREFORE it is important that a church establish an "Accountable Reimbursement Plan" which will reimburse or pay directly all costs which the pastor incurs for "doing business" for the church, so that the pastor is not paying income tax for church expenses. These should include but not be limited to:

1. auto reimbursement - for use of personal car at current IRS rate plus tolls and parking, or an automobile provided by the church
2. professional expenses - all expenses allowed by the IRS
3. continuing education allowance

For more detail see Clergy Compensation Booklet

For reference, the following is an illustration of what is needed to fund the POSITION of a pastor (salary, housing, AND benefits and professional expenses) for a minister with 12 years experience, receiving a mid-range salary, serving in a church with 150-300 members:

COMPENSATION:

salary	$39,270
housing allowance (for those not in a parsonage, $150,000 house)	18,360

BENEFITS:

annuity (salary + housing x 14%) ¹	8,131
life insurance and disability benefit plan (salary + housing x 1%)	581
group life insurance	50
medical/dental insurance (family plan)	10,404
social security offset (salary + housing x 7.65%) ²	4,443

PROFESSIONAL COSTS

professional expenses	1,500
continuing education	750
auto reimbursement (14,000 miles/year @ $.365/mile)	5,110
total needed to fund the position of minister	$89,049

Minutes

It is understood that some churches may not be able to meet these guidelines immediately, and may need instead to institute them over a period of 3-5 years. It will be important in these instances to project a cost of living increase for each year and to make the necessary projection of total dollars above where the compensation package is at present. Then simply divide by the number of years it will take to reach the goal, and increase the annual compensation package by that figure over the 3-5 year period.

¹ This is the standard formula recommended by the UCC Pension Boards for calculating the annual church contribution to a pastor's annuity. However, in some specific situations where a pastor's compensation package is heavily weighted toward a housing allowance, a tax accountant should be consulted to assure that the annuity payment does not exceed the maximum percent of taxable compensation allowed by the IRS for contribution to a 403(b) tax sheltered annuity.

² This is taxable income which must be included with taxable wages on the W-2 form given to the pastor and reported on a clergy person's tax returns.

Resolution to End Homelessness in Massachusetts

The Bible is filled with invitations, calls and commands "to do justice, to love kindness and to walk humbly with God". (Micah 6:8) We are exhorted to "turn our swords into plowshares and to provide each person with their own vine and fig tree". (Micah 4:3-4) Jesus reminds us that God commands us "to love our neighbors as ourselves" (Luke 10:27) and to create a just and loving society for all of God's beloved.

WHEREAS The Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ has recently passed resolutions on the just Stewardship of Wealth (98-AM-13) and on Welfare Reform (99-AM-7), and has demonstrated over its 202 year history a commitment to advocating for the poor and oppressed; and

WHEREAS Homelessness is increasing in the Commonwealth with over 338 families living in motels often without access to food, cooking facilities, public transportation, continuity for their children's schooling and employment*; and

WHEREAS Over 65% of applicants were denied assistance by the Department of Transitional Housing and continue to live on the streets, in cars or unsafe living conditions*; and

WHEREAS The number of homeless individuals on the streets has increased 30% and shelters are operating at more than 120% of capacity and much higher in the winter months; and

WHEREAS Many communities across the Commonwealth have few if any units of affordable housing and generally do not welcome low income or homeless residents; and

WHEREAS the Massachusetts Coalition for the Homeless, Faith In Action Together, and the Campaign to End Homelessness can provide individuals and churches with practical solutions to assist those who are homeless through direct advocacy and to use the political process to advocate with the state legislature to end homelessness in the Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS Faith communities from many traditions have joined this coalition, and working together have an unprecedented opportunity to end all homelessness in the next five years; and

WHEREAS numerous of our Massachusetts Conference churches house and operate shelters in their buildings (Crombie Street United Church of Christ in Salem, First Congregational Church in Cambridge and Pilgrim Church of Dorchester) and many others support services for homeless people in their communities.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the 203rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ calls upon local churches, associations, and the commissions of the Conference to join together with faith based and other coalitions across the Commonwealth to end family homelessness by offering direct services to homeless people while simultaneously participating in legislative advocacy to end homelessness. We further call upon churches to work actively to advocate for and support affordable housing options in their communities and support use of state and church land for affordable housing.

A Resolution Concerning our Government's Response to the Attacks of 9/11/01

WHEREAS the 203rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ mourns the terrible loss of innocent lives on September 11 and grieves deeply with the victims' families, and

WHEREAS the Apostle Paul tells us, "Repay no one evil for evil" and, "Do not be overcome by evil but overcome evil with good" (Romans 12:17, 20), and

WHEREAS many people of faith in our churches feel called by God to engage in non-violent resistance to evil, and

WHEREAS our government has mounted a large-scale military operation in Afghanistan which has resulted in numerous deaths of innocent civilians, as well as military personnel, and

WHEREAS our government has indicated its intention to expand its search for terrorists by carrying the war into other countries, and

WHEREAS our government is currently presiding over an erosion of the civil rights guaranteed by our Constitution and Bill of Rights to all citizens and legal aliens,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 203rd Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ directs the Minister and President to release the following statement to the President of the United States, our Congressional delegation, the national offices of the United Church of Christ, and to major Massachusetts news media:

We rejoice in the determination of our fellow citizens not to be overcome by this great tragedy.

We condemn these monstrous criminal acts and we support non-violent efforts of our government to apprehend those responsible and to bring them to justice before an international tribunal.

We encourage our government to examine and address the root causes of terrorism.

We believe that non-violent actions of a diplomatic, financial, educational and intelligence nature in cooperation with other countries and international bodies are more effective strategies for dismantling terrorism than warfare.

We offer our support and prayers to the members of the United States military around the world, who are serving and sacrificing to protect all of us from further terrorism.

We oppose the expansion of this war to other countries, for example Iraq.

We deplore the use of ethnic and racial profiling, indefinite detention and other erosions of civil liberties guaranteed by our Constitution and Bill of Rights.

We favor increased humanitarian aid to the Afghan people for the rebuilding of their devastated society.

We encourage our national media to continue pushing for access to military activities and to defend vigorously our freedoms of speech and dissent.

We renew our commitment as individual Christians and as a church body to explore and work for ways that enable peace to prevail over violence and hatred in our world, and to seek God's direction in advancing our understanding of God's call to us to be peace-makers.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 203rd Annual Meeting urges the churches of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ to institute educational and action programs concerning the issues implicit in this resolution.

MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL FUND

Professionally managed, socially responsible investment trusts with competitive returns.

The EQUITY FUND (First Trust) is managed by State Street Global Advisors using their socially responsible equity strategy to preserve capital while seeking appreciation through a diversified portfolio of securities in sound businesses. Its objectives are to exceed the total return of the S&P 500 Index with a lower risk profile. The investment process employs the strategies of macro analysis industry selection (top-down) and security analysis stock selection (bottom-up) to construct a trust portfolio from a socially screened universe of investment grade securities.

The FIXED INCOME FUND (Second Trust) is managed by Dwight Asset Management Company to preserve capital and provide a high level of current income through a diversified portfolio of investment grade fixed income securities.
